

Remarks

This Preliminary Amendment further defines the invention as set forth in pending claim 56 relating to mixtures comprising hyaluronic acid, cancellous bone, and demineralized bone matrix, by adding claims 65-76, addressing specific embodiments thereof derived from the specification, for example, at pages 15-26.

An American Express Credit Card Payment Form is attached for payment of the $120.00 fee for the four additional claims, two of which are independent claims. Any deficiency or overpayment of the required fee should be charged/credited to Deposit Account No. 19-3140.

Conclusion

Applicant respectfully urges prompt allowance of the instant application.

Respectfully submitted,
